What is a Diary Entry?

A diary entry is a record of one's(our) feelings following an event either sad or pleasant.

Diary entries are personal reflective in nature. Therefore, they may not always be objective in view. A diary entry usually includes detailed perspectives(in the view) of the writer of the following events occurring in the present.

- Facts -Basically in it we write a thing which is known or we may say proved to be true.
- Observations -It means we monitor something Or statement Which we see,heard or noticed.
- Perceptions _something is regarded or understood.
- Descriptions_literally we can say it includes writing account of person or object.

Visite to IIT PATNA

Dear Diary,

Today my class visited IIT CAMPUS Patna as part our science activity.There we saw and interacted with many students.We were told that This place of education will help you in your studies so that you will get to learn a lot about science.Where we saw different types of instruments and machines.The IIT campus was very large and beautiful where the science laboratory was the center of attraction.We have just got inspiration to move forward in life.

I also sincerely hope that I will too grow up to become an IITian.

Good night
